CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. These terms and conditions together with the particulars set out overleaf supersede any terms and conditions proposed by the buyer and may not be varied except with the written consent of the Seller.
2. The Seller reserves the right by notice given at any time before delivery to vary the price of the goods if, after the date hereof, there is any increase or decrease in the total cost of such goods to the Seller arising from any cause beyond the Seller control. Provided that if any such price variation shall increase the price of the goods by more than 10% over that ruling at the date hereof, the buyer may by written notice to the Seller cancel the undelivered balance of this contract.
3. Until full payment has been made of all sums outstanding from the buyer to the Seller (including balances outstanding in respect of prior transactions):
 - a. The property in the goods shall remain in the Seller.
 - b. The Seller reserves the rights of disposal of the goods until all the debts owing to the Seller arising from the sale have been discharged. If the buyer sells the goods before all debts owing to the Seller have been discharged then the buyer shall transfer to the Seller all and every claim he has as against his buyer emanating from the transaction.
 - c. In the event of the appointment of a Liquidator or Receiver by the buyer the Seller shall have the right to re-possess the goods and the buyer hereby grants the seller irrevocable licence to enter upon any premises of the buyer for so doing.
4. The Seller shall not be liable:
 - a. For failure to perform any obligation hereunder if such failure was caused by circumstances beyond the Seller control, or
 - b. To make good any damage or loss whether arising directly or indirectly out of delay in performing any obligations hereunder.
5. Each delivery shall be considered a separate transaction and the failure of any one delivery shall not affect the due performance of the contract as to deliveries which are affected.
6. All claims for damage to, or partial loss of goods in transit must be submitted in writing to both the carrier and the Seller within three days of delivery, in the case on non-delivery of the whole consignment, claims must be submitted in writing to both the carrier and the Seller within seven days of receipt by the buyer (or the buyer's agent) of notification of dispatch of the goods in the absence of claims within the terms mentioned above the goods shall be deemed to have been delivered in accordance with the contract.
7. All representations, warranties and conditions express or implied, by Statute Common Law or otherwise in respect of the goods whether as to quality, fitness for any purpose or otherwise are hereby expressly excluded and the Seller shall not be liable for any loss, injury damage cost or expense arising whether directly or indirectly from or in connection with the goods, their use, application or storage. Without prejudice to the above the Seller will be prepared to consider claims concerning the quality of the goods provided that such claims are notified to the Seller within 30 days of receipt of the goods by the buyer.
8. The Seller may, without prejudice to its other rights and remedies, terminate this contract if either there shall be any breach by the buyer of any term or condition hereunder or the financial responsibility of the buyer shall in the opinion of the Seller, become impaired or unsatisfactory.
9. Where the buyer has specified that the goods shall be of a certain size, such specification shall be subject to reasonable commercial variation.
10. The construction, validity and performance of this contract shall be governed by the internal Laws of the Republic of Ireland.
11. When goods are made or adapted by the Seller in accordance with the buyer's specifications the buyer shall indemnify the Seller against all damages, penalties, costs, claims and expenses incurred by the Seller in respect of the infringement of alleged infringement by such goods of any patents, registered designs, trade marks or other rights belonging to third parties.

The buyer shall pay to the seller in addition to the price specified overleaf the amount of any Value Added Tax chargeable on the supply of goods and/or services hereunder at the rate ruling at the time of supply which shall be determined in accordance with the Value Added Tax Act, 1972, the Finance Act, 1973, and in Statutory Orders and Regulations made thereunder. The buyer shall be liable for any Purchase tax or similar taxes, levies or duties which may replace Value Added Tax.
13. In the case of partial completion of an order, the Seller shall be entitled to a quantum meruit in respect of all work done by it without prejudice to its rights should non completion be occasioned by the buyers.
14. The seller reserves the right to sub-contract the fulfillment of the order or any part thereof.

17. The Seller reserves the rights to recover all and any charges incurred by it in collecting overdue monies including debt collection fees, solicitor's fees and/or court costs.
18. Texture and colour of standard concrete and fair-face concrete products.
Precast concrete products are manufactured using cement and cementitious materials such as fly-ash and slag cement and other materials such as coarse stone and fine sand aggregates. These materials used in concrete production are naturally occurring materials and as such will have a degree of colour variation and surface texture. Also, the ambient conditions in which precast concrete products are manufactured and the age of such concrete products will also affect the appearance of such products, further, concrete products stored on-site for prolonged periods in inclement weather are also liable to become water stained and can increase the possibility of efflorescence, whilst water marks or efflorescence are not detrimental to the performance of concrete products they may not be aesthetically pleasing. However, in most situations externally installed concrete products will return to a uniformity of surface appearance as the products accustom to the ambient conditions.
19. Product design is the ultimate responsibility of the Customer.

I/We have read and fully understand the above Conditions of Sale and agree to be bound by them.
